

LETTER NAMES OF NOTES ON THE STAFF

Name _____

(Notice that C and D are pitches that are lower than the lines of the staff.)

Directions: Each note on the staff has a letter name. Using the chart above for reference, fill in the letter name of each note in the space below it. When the letters are combined, they make words and you will be able to read the story.

A Trip to the Zoo

One day, my took me to the zoo. There we saw a monkey in a . The monkey was eating .

My father said, “That monkey is making me hungry. What’s in the lunch ?”

I took out two salad sandwiches and we began to eat. My sandwich was gooey and it got all over my .

The monkey chattered and for food. He looked so cute that I put a piece of my sandwich on the of his cage. Just then, a security guard with a big shiny came along and pointed to a sign which read, “Do not the animals!” Then we got into a and went home.

LETTER NAMES OF NOTES ON THE STAFF

A TRIP TO THE ZOO

One day, my DAD took me to the zoo. There we saw a monkey in a CAGE. The monkey was eating CABBAGE. My father said, "That monkey is making me hungry. What's in the lunch BAG?" I took out two EGG salad sandwiches and we began to eat. My sandwich was gooey and it got all over my FACE.

The monkey chattered and BEGGED for food. He looked so cute that I put a piece of my sandwich on the EDGE of his cage. Just then, a security guard with a big shiny BADGE came along and pointed to a sign which read, "Do not FEED the animals!" The we got into a CAB and went home.