

LETTER NAMES OF NOTES ON THE STAFF: BASS CLEF

Name _____

Directions: Each note on the staff has a letter name. Using the chart above for reference, fill in the letter name of each note in the space below it. When the letters are combined, they make words and you will be able to read the story.

A Musical Joke

A man walked into a  and ordered a bowl of soup. An waiter brought his order. The man took one sip of his soup and his turned bright red.

“This soup tastes ,” he said. “I wouldn’t  it to my dog!”

“Why don’t you  some salt, or maybe a  of hot sauce?”

suggested the waiter.

The man  the condiments and decided to try the soup again.

Just as he started to take a spoonful he . He exclaimed, “Waiter, there’s a  in my soup!”

“Don’t worry, sir. It won’t sting you,” replied the waiter.

“I know,” said the man. “After eating this soup, it must be  !”

LETTER NAMES OF NOTES ON THE STAFF: BASS CLEF

A MUSICAL JOKE

A man walked into a CAFE and ordered a bowl of soup. An AGED waiter brought his order. The man took one sip of his soup and his FACE turned bright red.

“This soup tastes BAD,” he said. “I wouldn’t FEED it to my dog!”

“Why don’t you ADD some salt, or maybe a DAB of hot sauce?” suggested the waiter.

The man ADDED the condiments and decided to try the soup again.

Just as he started to take a spoonful, he GAGGED. He exclaimed, “Waiter, there’s a BEE in my soup!”

“Don’t worry, sir. It won’t sting you,” replied the waiter.

“I know,” said the man. “After eating this soup, it must be DEAD!”